

2015 Healthy Schools Summit

Creating a Healthy School Environment: Steps to a safe, healthy place to learn, work, and grow

Thursday, June 4, 2015

8AM to 4:15PM

Location: Whitlock Flexible Learning Center (364 Successful Way, Spartanburg, SC 29303)

Partners for Active Living and SRHS Corporate Education is hosting this day-long conference for administrators, school board members, teachers and staff, nurses, guidance counselors, food service, SIC/PTSO members, interested parents and community members to discuss many topics such as school wellness policies, nutrition, nutrition education, employee wellness, physical education, Safe Routes to School, tobacco free schools, healthy fundraising, etc. Join us to learn from national, statewide and local leaders! Sponsored by the Mary Black Foundation and the Spartanburg Community Indicators Project, our keynote speaker is Dr. Dave Walsh, founder of Mind Positive Parenting, which equips parents and communities to raise children and youth who can not only survive but also thrive, meeting the demands and challenges of the 21st Century. Registration is free but donations are encouraged. The conference includes light breakfast, lunch, and snack. Dress comfortably and come ready to participate!

Learn more at www.active-living.org

This conference qualifies for 6 hours of continuing education. CE approval does not imply approval or endorsement of any product by American Nurses Credentialing Center, South Carolina Nurses Association Continuing Education Approver Committee and Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System Corporate Education. The speakers and planning committee members for this conference have disclosed that they do not have relevant financial relationships with commercial interests and does not anticipate discussing unlabeled uses of any commercial products or any investigational products.